

COE WORLD CUP NEWS

WEST SIDE ALLIANCE S.C. 2014 EDITION - THURSDAY, JULY 24

New Zealand Holland Hoist Cup; Silence Critics!

Coach Matt Not Golden Glove Winner

Coach Wayne led the All-Black New Zealand side to it's first ever COE World Cup trophy. The match was not without controversy when New Zealander Weeks picked up a stray ball following his equalizer to seal away the winner. Coach Paulo was confident the ball was not in play. Referee LaCourse was said he did the "countdown". Confusion ensued, the All Blacks lifted the Cup. Coach Mo's Dutch side claimed the COE Juniors World Cup. After using penalties against the USA to pass through to the final the Dutch used a pair of Brian goals to claim the title. "Um, we won," was the usual calm Coach Mo after the final whistle.

continued Summer 2015.....

Raising hands to answer quiz question. Hint: It's Arsenal.

Germany Cup Ends; Griff's Argentina nearly pulls upset!

Coach Matt's Germans did not hoist this year's cup. But Cupcake, M&M, and several other players from the German side are confident next year could be their year. Likewise, Coach Griff's Argentina side did not earn hardware, but they nearly eliminated the favored All Blacks, and the sea-saw game that finally found it's winner from Week's boot was possibly match of the tourney. Slavakia put to bed the nickname "Slow"vakia when they nearly dealt Colombia a semifinal loss. The spirit of all the teams was tremendous all week-long!

New Zealand COE World Cup Champions!

Holland COE World Cup Champions (Jrs)!

Coach Paulo readies his Colombians for penalties after upstart Slavakia took the favored Colombian side the distance before bowing out.