"We Are Who We Are"

Core Value #1

Family

This is our brotherhood,
this is our sisterhood, we are perfect by our love for one another.

Core Value #2

Always Becoming

Relentless effort,
teachable attitude,
shapeable spirit, constant evolution, innovative problem solver in the face of challenge.

Core Value #3

Servitude

I serve my team,
my community
and those who love me.

Core Value #4

Hard Work

I cannot control results but I can control my effort. I am 100%, 100% of the time.

Core Value #5

Be Thankful

Begin with a grateful heart, continue with a gracious attitude, finish with thanks for the opportunity.

Core Value #6

Live Your Why

Motivation found in great PURPOSE.

Action taken on behalf of great PURPOSE.

Core Value #7

Legacy

I pioneer new frontiers
to leave a better place
for those who come
after me.

Practice, Game, and Event Attendance

West Side Alliance players are expected to attend team events including training, games, and any team events. As part of the core values you are expected to be disciplined in your approach to training. Do not miss unless absolutely necessary. Give your coach a 24 hour notification so he can plan his training session properly.

Player Grade Requirements

Players are expected to work hard and achieve in the classroom.

Players that have below average grades due to excessive unexcused absences or lack of work may be subject to game suspension.

Acknowledgement /Greetings

Just as coaches, players are expected to show respect to their coaches and peers. When a coach is addressing a player he/she should give their full attention and take in the information given from the coach. Look them in the eye during team huddles and all interaction.

General Player Conduct

Players should support and encourage their teammates at all times in line with the Side Before Self ethos within the club. Players should not engage in any behavior that reflects badly on themselves, their family and the club. You as the player are a reflection of your parents, coach, team

and program as a whole.
Understand the magnitude
of what you represent.
You are "West Side." Honor the core values and conduct yourself like a professional.
